

Curriculum vitae

Peter Lewisch, Dr. iur. and Dr. rer.soc.oec. (economics).

1992 „Habilitation“ in criminal law and criminal procedure, 1993 „Habilitation“ in constitutional law.

1990/91 and 1993 research visits in the US at the department of Prof. Buchanan (Nobel prize laureate in economics 1986), Center for Public Choice, GMU, Fairfax/VA.

2002 onward: University professor of law, with particular emphasis on constitutional law, EU law and criminal law at Imadec University/Vienna.

2002 Visting Professor for EU-law at George Mason University, Law School, USA.

2011 onward: University professor of criminal law and criminal procedure at the University of Vienna. Director of Center for the Economic Analysis of the Law and the Center for Business and Financial Crime.

2014: Short-listed (3-candidates-proposal) by the Austrian government for the position of the Austrian judge at the European Court for Human Rights (not elected).

Numerous academic visits abroad for research and lectures.

In Europe: Athens, Madrid, Dresden, Barcelona, Porto, Lisbon, Paris, Dijon, Nancy, Hamburg, Travemuende, Konstanz, Oxford, London, Girona, Bologna, Turin, Rome, London, Milan, Siena, Catania, Ghent, Bruges, Castellanza, Freiburg, St Petersburg, Lund, Copenhagen, Reykjavik, Rotterdam, Augsburg, Bergen, Dublin, Amsterdam, Arad, Vaduz, Regensburg, Istanbul, Aix-en-Provence, Edinburgh, Warsaw, Tel Aviv, Jerusalem, and Zurich.

In the US: Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Cornell, George Mason, Vanderbilt, UCLA, Berkeley, Stanford, NYU, Ann Arbor, Notre Dame.

In South America: Argentinien, Brazil, Uruguay, Chile, Peru, Bolivia.

In Africa: Egypt, Ethiopia.

In Asia: India, Vietnam, Pakistan, China, Japan, Süd-Korea, Taiwan, Bhutan

In Australia: Brisbane.

Since 1996 practicing attorney in Vienna (Cerha Hempel RAe GmbH).